

B. Tech Degree V Semester Examination, November 2009

ME 506 INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENT (2006 Scheme)

Time : 3 Hours

Maximum Marks : 100

PART - A (Answer ALL questions)

(8 x 5 = 40)

- I. (a) What is organization? Distinguish between formal and informal organization.
(b) Explain the concept of span of management.
(c) Point out the important principles of industrial legislation.
(d) Write brief notes on trade unions in industry.
(e) What is zero – base budgeting? Why is it necessary?
(f) Explain how control is exercised through costing.
(g) What are the factors affecting the pricing policy of an enterprise?
(h) How do you assess the techno-economic feasibility of a project?

PART - B

(4 x 15 = 60)

- II. Explain different types of organizational structures as applied to a manufacturing concern. (15)
- OR
- III. Briefly discuss the functions and roles of personnel management in an organization. (15)
- IV. Bring out the importance of industrial relations in a factory. Briefly discuss the methods of settling industrial disputes. (15)
- OR
- V. Define wages. Explain different wage payment plans. (15)
- VI. Explain the concept of budget and discuss how budget can be used as a means for planning, co-ordination and control in an organization. (15)
- OR
- VII. Assume that the following investment alternatives are available :
Project A requires an investment of Rs. 8,00,000 and it is expected to yield profits (after depreciation and tax) of Rs. 1,70,000; 1,80,000; 1,90,000; 2,00,000 and 2,20,000 respectively during five years. Project B requires an investment of Rs. 6,00,000 which is expected to yield profits (before depreciation and tax @ 10%) during 5 years amounting to Rs. 1,30,000; 1,50,000; 1,60,000; 1,80,000; and 2,00,000.
Work out the pay back period of both the projects. Also calculate the rate of returns from each project. Suggest which project should be accepted. (15)
- VIII. (a) Differentiate between the concepts of marketing and selling. (5)
(b) Explain pricing policies and pricing decisions. (10)
- OR
- IX. Explain the concept of entrepreneurship development. Discuss briefly the factors affecting entrepreneurship. (15)

