

B.Tech. Degree VI Semester (Supplementary)
Examination in Mechanical Engineering(CAD/CAM)
December 2002

ME 602 INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENT

(1995 Admissions)

me: 3 Hours

Maximum Marks: 100

- (a) Explain the meaning of Utility. What is the difference between total utility and marginal utility? Explain the laws of diminishing marginal utility and give a numerical example. (10)
- (b) Briefly explain the factors of production and their significance. (10)

OR

- (a) Explain salient features of partnership and joint stock companies. (10)
- (b) Explain briefly:
- (i) Risk theory (ii) Innovation theory of profit
- (iii) Monopoly and monopolistic competition (10)

- (a) What are the contributions of F.W.Taylor, F & L Gilbreith and Henry Fayol to the field of Scientific Management? (12)
- (b) "Motivation and Communication are two important functions of Management". Discuss the statement. (8)

OR

- (a) Explain various stages and characteristics of Decision Making. (10)
- (b) Briefly explain:
- (i) Systems concept (ii) Power, Authority and Responsibility
- (iii) Management by Objectives (10)

- (a) Explain the procedure of selecting management trainees. (10)
- (b) Explain various Incentive plans. (10)

OR

- (a) Explain various causes and effects of labour turnover in an organization. (10)
- (b) Explain various methods of job evaluation. (10)

- I. (a) "Marketing Research is the key tool used by the management in its problem solving and decision making in the field of marketing." Justify. (10)
- (b) A smooth flow company is manufacturing certain type of fountain pen. The fixed cost of the company is 3 lakhs/year. The unit selling price is Rs.8/- and unit variable cost is Rs.5/-. Presently the firm is manufacturing and selling 1,40,000 fountain pens. Calculate - (i) Break Even Quantity and sales. (ii) Profit (iii) Total output or quantity if desired profit is Rs.1,80,000/- (iv) Margin of Safety. (10)

OR

- II. Write short notes on following:
- (i) Product life cycle (ii) Test Marketing
- (iii) Product Design (iv) Marketing Vs Sales (20)

- (a) Explain the implications of Walter and Gordon Models for share evaluation. (8)
- (b) Working Capital is known as "revolving" or "circulating capital". Justify. (6)
- (c) List out the important differences between shares and debentures. (6)

OR

- (a) What is Cash budgeting? (5)
- (b) Explain various sources of long term financing. (10)
- (c) What is Economic Order Quantity? Derive the equation for EOQ. (5)