

Figures shows a component in isometric view. Its orthographic projections are to be drawn. The front view should be selected in as such a way that it is the largest and gives maximum details. For guideline an arrow is shown for the direction of front view. Draw three views, i.e. front, side and top view.

